Quick Facts

ATHLETICS

Shelton State Community College is a member of the Alabama Community College Conference (ACCC) and competes in the National Junior College Athletic Association (NJCAA) at the Division I level. Our varsity teams include baseball, men's and women's basketball and fast-pitch softball. The Shelton State Community College Athletics Department has spent the past decade establishing a winning tradition and bringing home championship trophies. Since 2003, our teams have won 14 NJCAA Region XXII Division I titles in men's and women's basketball and baseball, five National Championships in competitive cheerleading, and two recognitions as an Academic Team of the Year for softball. The Buccaneers take pride in their victories on the playing fields and courts while continuing to strive for success in the classroom and to provide a positive image in our community.

BASEBALL QUICK FACTS

The baseball team competes in the ACCC with a limited fall practice season and a full spring schedule. Home games are played on the college's Martin campus. Scholarships are awarded on the basis of try-outs and/or demonstrated ability to compete on the intercollegiate level.

Bobby Sprowl

Head Coach

University of Alabama • 24th Season

After leading Shelton State to a third place finish at the Junior College World Series in 2012, head coach Bobby Sprowl enters his 24th season at the helm of the Buccaneer baseball program.

Sprowl, who was named the 2012 ACCC Coach of the Year, has led the Shelton program to the Junior College World Series in four of the last six seasons. One of the hottest coaches in the state, Sprowl brings his tradition of success to Tuscaloosa. Sprowl is well known for his ability as pitching instructor. Shelton's exciting brand of baseball has drawn national attention over the past few years, including finishing Runner-up in the nation at the coveted Junior College World Series in 2008.

In 2009 Coach Sprowl celebrated another milestone in his career. He was inducted into the Alabama Baseball Coaches Association Hall of Fame.

Coach Sprowl enjoyed a fine college career at the University of Alabama, recognized as a second team All-American and consensus All-SEC in 1977. His 11.50 strikeouts per nine-inning led the NCAA in 1977. He was honored recently by being named to the Crimson Tide's All-Century Team. After his college career at Alabama, Sprowl enjoyed an eight-year professional baseball career with the Boston Red Sox and the Houston Astros. Sprowl, who was the number two pick of the Boston Red Sox in the June 1977 free agent draft, was a member of the 1978 team that lost a one-game American League Eastern Division playoff to the New York Yankees on Bucky Dent's famous three-run homer over the green monster at Fenway Park. On June 13, 1979, Bobby was traded to the Houston Astros. While a member of the Astros, Sprowl played on two Western Division Championship teams (1980 and 1981). Sprowl has a 31-year-old son, Jon Mark. Bobby is married to former Teresa Gibson, and they have two children, Trevor (20) and Graceson (16).

Brett Kimbrel

Assistant Coach • 10th Season

Shelton State Baseball assistant coach Brett Kimbrel who brought his hitting expertise to Shelton is entering his 10th season. Kimbrel had a big hand in leading the Shelton program to the Junior College World Series in four of the last six seasons.

Kimbrel is widely known in the college and high school ranks as a tireless and aggressive batting coach and instructor. Kimbrel's past coaching stops include student assistant for the University of Alabama, Chipola Junior College in Marianna, Florida, Tuscaloosa Academy and Holt High School in Tuscaloosa, Alabama. Kimbrel's responsibilities at Shelton include hitting instruction and working with the infielders.

Kimbrel is married to former Denise Hubbard. They have two sons Brett (27) and Blake (24).

Douglas Frazier

Assistant Coach • 4th Season

Douglas Frazier attended Northside High School where he was a four-year letter winner for the Rams. He was named All-West Alabama from 2003-2005, All-State Honorable Mention his senior season along with being named to the Tuscaloosa News Super 10 Baseball Team.

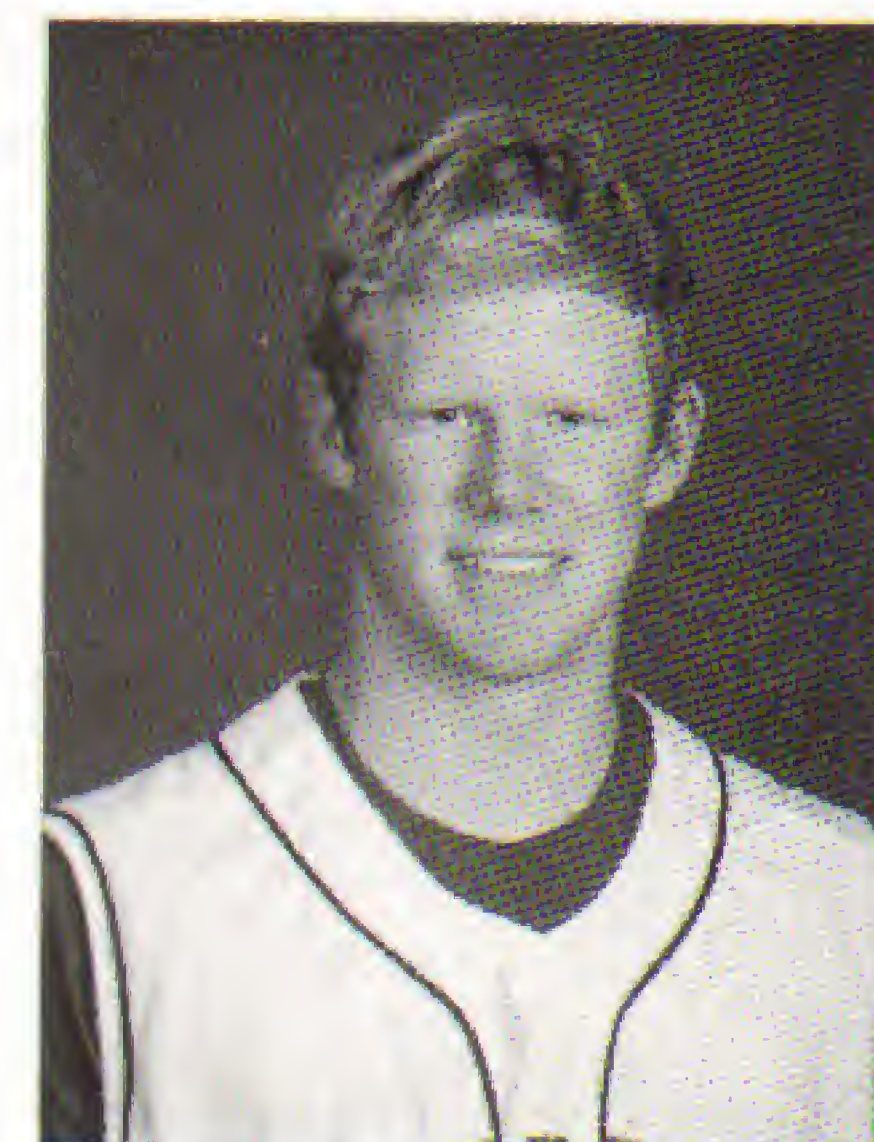

After high school, he played two seasons at Shelton State and holds the single season stolen base record with 35. Douglas helped guide the Buccaneers to the state and conference crowns in 2007. He transferred to the University of West Alabama to finish up his career. While at West Alabama, he was named Academic all Gulf South Conference in 2009 and 2010 and second team all conference in 2010. Douglas was also voted team captain and MVP by his teammates in 2010. He graduated from West Alabama with a degree in History and a minor in Physical Education.

Matthew Russell "Matt" Downs (born March 19, 1984 in Tuscaloosa, Alabama) is a Major League Baseball second baseman for the Houston Astros.

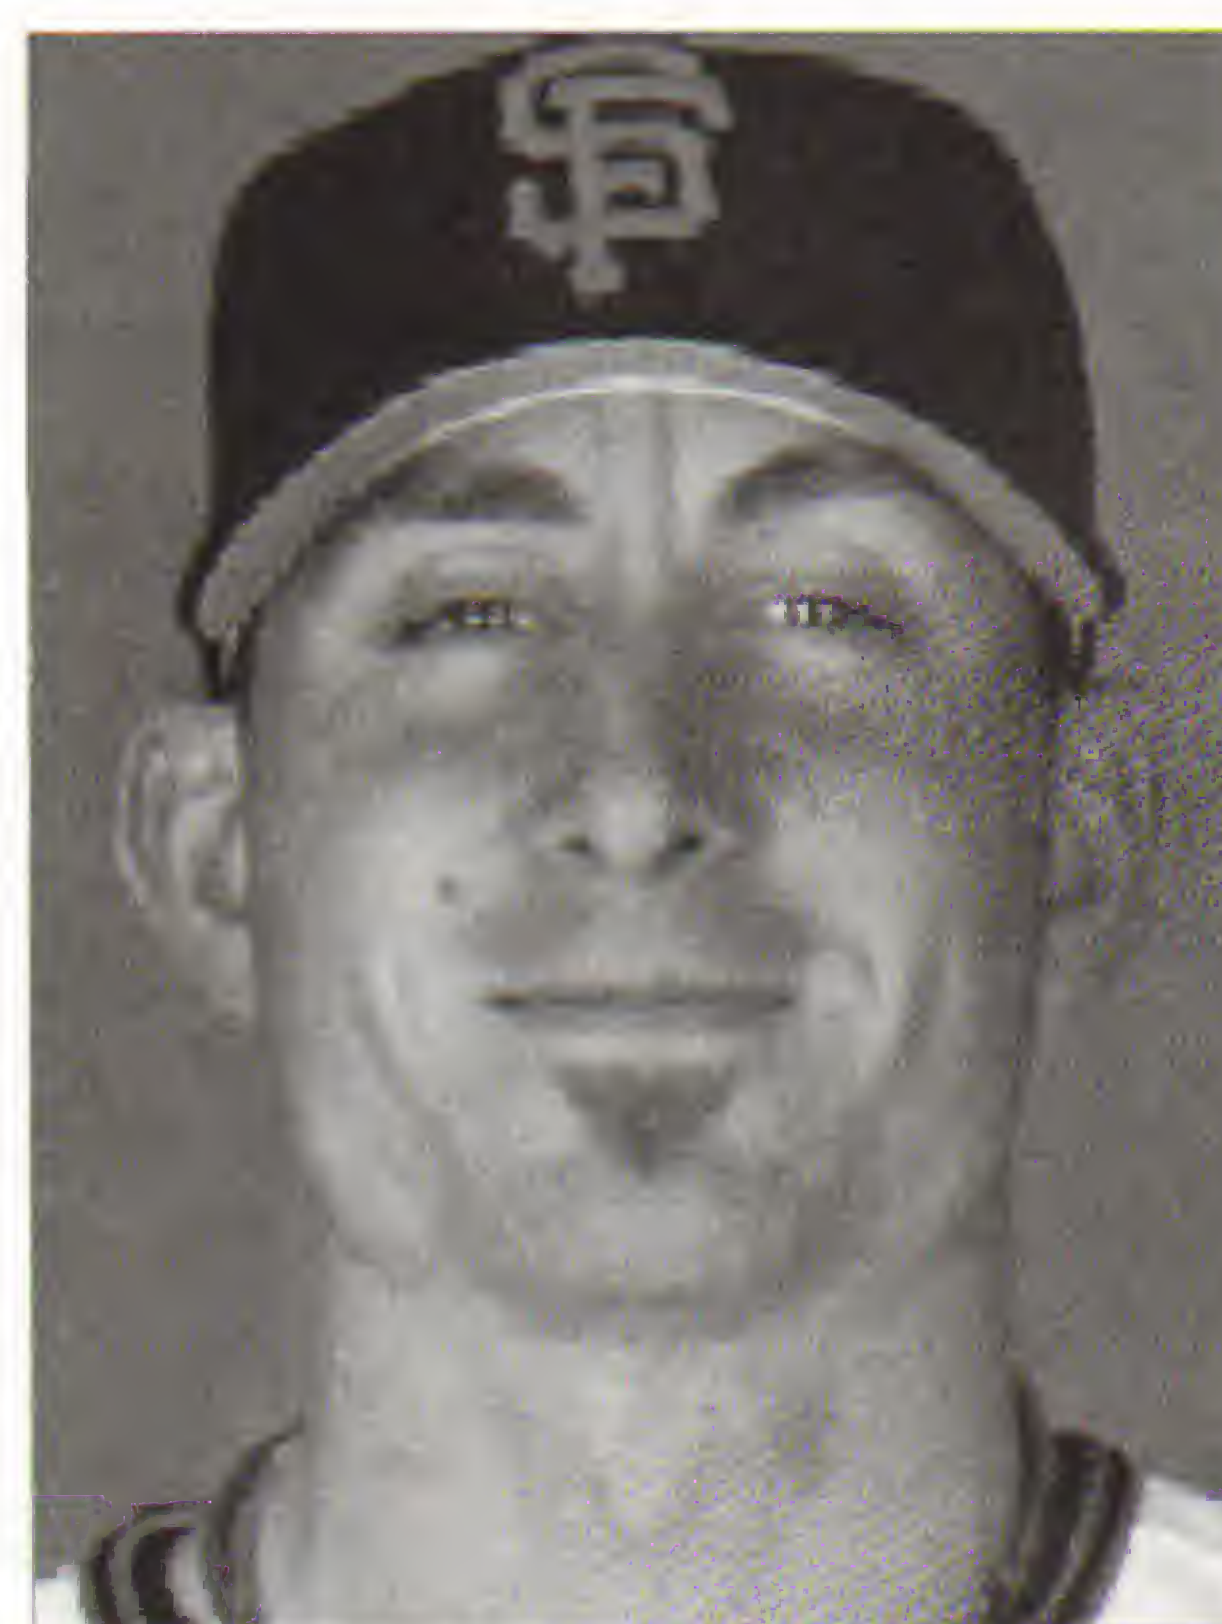

Downs graduated from Bibb County High School in Centreville, AL and he played a year playing as a pitcher/infielder for Shelton State Community College in Alabama in 2003.

He was drafted 26th by the Pittsburgh Pirates in the 2004 player draft, while playing for the University of Alabama. In 2006 the Giants drafted him 36th. He played 2006 in the Rookie League Giants franchise, in 2007 for the Salem-Keizer Volcanoes, and in 2009 at their Single-A San Jose Giants and AAA Fresno Grizzlies teams.

On June 16, 2009, Downs was called up to the San Francisco Giants, replacing Emmanuel Burriss, and he collected his first two big league hits June 17th against the Angels' Matt Palmer. He hit his 1st Major League home run off Milwaukee's Jeff Suppan on June 28.

He was optioned back to triple-A July 3, but was quickly recalled again on July 21, due to a struggling Juan Uribe, who returned to more of utility role. Downs started 3 of 4 games against Braves, batting .182 and going 2-for-11. He appeared in just 2 more games on Giants' 10-game road trip, went 0-for-6 in Colorado and was then optioned back to Fresno where he finished season.

Downs was designated for assignment by the San Francisco Giants on August 23, 2010 to make room for Cody Ross. He was claimed by the Houston Astros on August 25, and sent to Triple-A Round Rock.

Brandon Medders

Brandon Edward Medders (born January 26, 1980 in Tuscaloosa, Alabama) who is currently a free agent. He throws a 4-seam fastball, curveball, slider, and a cutter.

Medders graduated from Hillcrest High School in Tuscaloosa, Alabama and played at Shelton State Community College in Tuscaloosa, Alabama and at Mississippi State University in Starkville, Mississippi.

Medders debuted for the Arizona Diamondbacks in 2005, going 4-1 with a 1.78 ERA and 31 strikeouts. He was dominant in 2006, his first full year in the majors as he had an ERA of 3.64 in 60 relief appearances.

In 2007, however, Medders began to face inconsistency and was optioned to Triple-A on June 8. He had an ERA of 4.84, going 1-2 with a blown save.

Brandon was recalled September 1, 2007, when the rosters expanded. He became a free agent at the end of the 2008 season. On January 9, 2009 he signed a minor league contract the San Francisco Giants with an invitation to spring training. On April 4, the Giants announced that Medders had made their opening day roster.[1]

On January 16, 2010, Medders avoided arbitration and agreed to a 1 year $820,000 deal with the San Francisco Giants.[2]

On June 4, 2010, he was outrighted to Fresno while on the DL to make room for Pat Burrell.
